SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

2 years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
  - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: KHARI MALIK WHITEHEAD
CASE NUMBER: 3:18-00087

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall participate in a program of drug testing and substance abuse treatment which may include a 30-day inpatient treatment program followed by up to 90 days in a residential reentry center at the direction of the United States Probation Office. The defendant shall pay all or part of the costs if the Probation Officer determines the defendant as the financial ability to do so or has appropriate insurance coverage to pay for such treatment.
2. The defendant shall promptly advise the United States Probation Office of the name and contact information for any physician who prescribes any controlled substance and agrees to execute a release of information form so that medical records may be obtained from such physician and/or pharmacy.
3. The defendant shall participate in a mental health program as directed by the United States Probation Office. The defendant shall pay all or part of the costs if the United States Probation Office determines the defendant has the financial ability to do so or has appropriate insurance coverage to pay for such treatment. The defendant shall follow all rules, regulations, and instructions of his treatment provider(s), which may include his admission to an inpatient facility for stabilization, should it be deemed necessary. The defendant must comply with any and all medications, including injectable or oral units, as prescribed by his treatment provider(s).
4. For any treatment providers from whom he receives any manner of treatment services while under supervision, the defendant shall sign any documentation required to authorize the release of treatment-related information from such providers to the United States Probation Office, and to allow the sharing of information between treatment providers and the United States Probation Office. The defendant shall identify any treatment providers from whom he receives services while under supervision, including names, locations, and contact information pertaining to such treatment providers. The defendant shall provide the United States Probation Office with any available documentation detailing and verifying his treatment status and compliance, including (but not limited to) assessment reports, appointment schedules, case notes, testing records, and medication prescriptions.
5. The defendant shall furnish all financial records, including, without limitation, earnings records and tax returns, to the United States Probation Office upon request.
6. The defendant shall be on GPS (Global Positioning System) monitoring. The defendant shall keep the tracker unit on his person at all times. The defendant is required to pay the cost of electronic monitoring at the prevailing rate according to his financial ability, as determined by the United States Probation Office.
7. The defendant shall be on home detention for six (6) months of supervision beginning as soon as practicable from time of sentencing or release from custody/placement on supervision. While on home detention, the defendant is required to remain in his residence at all time except for approved absences for gainful employment, community service, religious services, medical care, education or training programs and such other times as may be specifically authorized by the United States Probation Office. Electronic monitoring, specifically GPS monitoring will be used to monitor defendant's compliance with home detention at the discretion of the United States Probation Office. The defendant shall pay all or part of the cost of any monitoring system if the United States Probation Office determines the defendant has the financial ability to do so.
8. The defendant shall not reside at any residence or location if said residence or location has a firearm, ammunition, or explosive device therein, regardless of whether or not the defendant has access to said firearm, ammunition, or explosive device.
9. The defendant shall not have in his possession at any time, an actual or imitation firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon.
10. The defendant shall not harm, or threaten to harm, any other person(s). The defendant shall not communicate threats of harm, either verbally or in writing, pertaining to any other person(s).
